

2015 Panorama Training Camp

Training Site: Panorama, British Columbia, Canada

Ski Area: Panorama

Focus: Super G

Dates: December 4-6 , 2015 (3 days on snow)

Departure from Spokane: Thurs, Dec. 3, 4:00 PM-Fred Meyer parking lot (I-90 Freya Exit)

Arrival in Spokane: Sun, Dec. 6, approximately 6:00 PM

Team Meetings: 8:30 PM (Mountain Time) on Saturday, November 21, then daily after training, times TBA

Staff: Mark Burandt, Others TBA

Camp Options:

Staying with the team: When your child travels with the team, SSRA coaches provide chaperoning. Camp costs include all lift tickets, lodging, team van, coach costs, and all meals. Cost: $625

Staying with your family: Camp costs include all lift tickets, team van, coach costs, and meal plan. Cost $500

Cost Details: SSRA runs these camps to break even on costs. In the event that money is saved, you will receive a refund. In the unlikely event that the cost of the camp exceeds estimates, participants will be billed.

Lodging: Upper Village condos. Lodging is reserved by SSRA coaches, unless you are travelling with family. If you need to book a unit, contact Amy Green at 250.341.3031.

Travel Documentation: Make sure to get appropriate border crossing documents in order. It is advisable to have a passport. However, minors may be allowed to cross with a birth certificate and/or photo ID. Minors travelling across the border with the team must bring a Border Crossing Authorization Letter. This must be signed by both parents/guardians and notarized. Those travelling with one parent or another family will also need these letters; signed and notarized.